INTERIOR WPC LOUVERS – Fluted Panels

JADE BLACK

Wood plastic composite is panel or lumber product made from recycled plastic and small wood particles or fibers.

BUSINESS BENCH

PRINCETON ORANGE

While there are many different designs of WPC panels, there are several common installation techniques.

BUSINESS BENCH

BERRY BLUE

The wall panels are designed with connecting slots. The installation efficiency is extremely high.

BUSINESS BENCH

COLONIAL MAPLE

Most affordable substitute for real wood panelling. Compared to the many panels that are now on the market, whether they are made of wood, mdf, or charcoal.

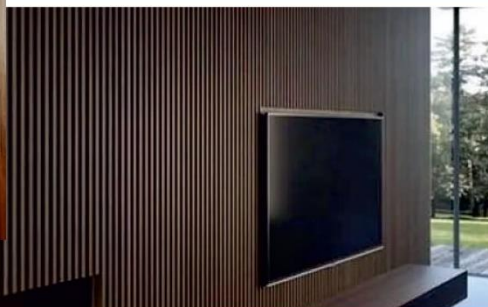

BUSINESS BENCH

JACOBEAN WOOD

Different types of laminates are extensively used for interior in modern homes, and WPC - Panel has become incredibly popular among homeowners, designers, and architects alike.

PLATINUM GREY

The diversity in the wood's colour, quality, grain, and character in your wall will be larger than what can be seen in these pictures.

BUSINESS BENCH

PADOAK

Padoak WPC Panel has great stability and is rigid and relatively robust. Because of its distinctive colour and low price, it is a common hardwood among hobbyist woodworkers.

BUSINESS BENCH

MAHOGANY

It can be polished to an extremely high gloss and is known for its straight grain and distinctive reddish brown colour. It also polishes and oils quite well.

BUSINESS BENCH

REDCHEST NUT

Wood plastic composite is panel or lumber product made from recycled plastic and small wood particles or fibers. Hence why, the greatest advantage of WPC is its ECO approach of using waste wood and recycled plastic material.

BUSINESS BENCH

WHITEOAK

WPC Panel is very rigid, stable, and reasonably robust. It is a popular timber among amateur wood workers due to its unusual colour and affordable cost.

BUSINESS BENCH

SATUARIO WHITE

The variety of colour, grade, grain, and character of the wood in your wall will be greater than what can be seen in these images.
